We follow the advice of the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE), which requires that authors should have confidence in the integrity of the contributions of their co-authors; and which recommends that authorship be based on four criteria.

All those designated as AUC-K authors should meet all four criteria for authorship.

1.     a. substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work;
       b. or the acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data for the work; AND
2. Drafting the work or revising it critically for important intellectual content; AND
3. Final approval of the version to be published; AND
4. Agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work, ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.

Those who do not meet all four criteria may be otherwise acknowledged.
